“To me, leadership is something that requires constant self-investment, not only for my journey but for the journeys of those who I lead.”

Moira Aynsley (Rising 2022) | Foodbank WA

Applicants are encouraged to apply regardless of their personal or organisational financial situation and may be eligible for scholarships, payment plans or special consideration for partial fee waivers.

Catering and refreshments are provided for Experience Days. Transport to and from Experiences and personal expenses are the responsibility of participants.

Applicants are asked to hold their nominated cohort Program dates in their calendar, to ensure their availability. There will also be an additional time commitment outside of Experience Days, including ahead of and following each Experience and for collaboration on the group Community Impact Project.
